IN THE DISTRICT COURT

OF DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION

COMES NOW Plaintiff, David Kelly ("Kelly") ("Plaintiff"), by and through his attorneys of record, for his Complaint against Defendants, Jefferies Group, Inc. ("Jefferies") and Fred Ostrove ("Ostrove") (collectively "Defendants"), hereby alleging as follows:

I.
DISCOVERY CONTROL PLAN

1.01 Plaintiffs hereby request that discovery be conducted under Level 3, pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 190.4.

II.
PARTIES

2.01 Plaintiff, David Kelly, is an individual residing in Indian River County, Florida.

2.03 Defendant Jefferies Group, Inc. is a foreign corporation authorized to do and doing business in the State of Texas. Jefferies Group, Inc. has done business and committed torts in the State of Texas, which give rise to Plaintiff's claims. Jefferies Group, Inc. may be served with process by serving its registered agent for process in the State of Texas at the following address:

CT Corporation System
1999 Bryan Street, Suite 900
Dallas, Texas 75201

2.03 Defendant Fred Ostrove is an individual residing in the State of New York who has done business and committed torts in the State of Texas which give rise to Plaintiff's claims. Ostrove does not maintain a designated agent for service of process in the State of Texas, nor does he maintain a regular place of business in the State of Texas. Accordingly, the Secretary of State is an agent of service of process on Ostrove pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code Section 17.044(c). Plaintiff, therefore, requests that Ostrove be served according to that same provision, through the Secretary of State of the State of Texas, who shall be served with duplicate copies of process at the following address:

Fred Ostrove
c/o Office of the Secretary of State
Statutory Documents Section – Citation Unit
1019 Brazos Street
Austin, TX 78701

The Secretary of State is requested to forward by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the process, citation and complaint to his principal place of business as follows:

Fred Ostrove
Jefferies Group, Inc.
520 Madison Ave.
New York, NY 10022

III. AGENCY

3.01 Ostrove was acting as the employee, agent and authorized representative of Jefferies with the express or implied authority to engage in the acts complained of, and Jefferies subsequently benefited financially from those acts and ratified the conduct.

3.02 Unless otherwise stated herein, whenever it is alleged in this pleading that Jefferies committed an act, made a representation or statement, failed to perform an act, or failed to make a statement, it means that Jefferies was acting or failing to act through its authorized agents, partners, employees, and/or Defendant Ostrove, who was acting with either express, implied, apparent and/or ostensible authority, and that Defendant Jefferies subsequently ratified and benefited financially from these acts, failures to act, representations, statements or conduct.

IV.
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4.01 Subject matter jurisdiction is properly vested in this Court.

4.02 This Court also has personal jurisdiction, both general and specific, over all of the Defendants. Defendant Jefferies Group, Inc. has its principal office for business in Dallas, Texas. Defendant Ostrove has continuously and systematically engaged in business in Texas. All Defendants have purposefully availed themselves of the privileges and benefits of conducting business in Texas, have engaged in substantial business transactions in Texas in connection with Plaintiff' investment at issue and as such, are subject to personal jurisdiction in this State.

4.03 All Defendants' activities have been directed to Texas, and this litigation has resulted from the injuries that arise out of or relate to these activities. Defendants committed torts, which are the subject of this action, in whole or in part in Texas and otherwise transacted business in Texas. Therefore, this lawsuit has been properly filed in Texas state court in Dallas County, Texas.

4.04 Venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas as to all Defendants pursuant to CPRC Section 15.005 because venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas as to at least one Defendant, and all claims and actions arise out of the same series of transactions and occurrences. Venue is also proper in Dallas County, Texas because Jefferies has its principal office for business in Texas located in Dallas County, Texas. Finally, venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas because a substantial part of the facts relating to at least one claim occurred in Dallas County, Texas.

4.05 Damages sought by Plaintiffs are within the jurisdictional limits of the court. Plaintiffs seek monetary relief over $200,000 but no more than $1,000,000.

V.
FACTUAL BACKGROUND

5.01 Defendant Jefferies is a Dallas-based firm that specializes in brokering securities. Ostrove was an employee, agent and authorized representative of Jefferies who represented Jefferies in its dealings with Plaintiff.

5.02 Since 2006, Ostrove had been Plaintiff's financial adviser and investment broker. Plaintiff had been accustomed to relying on Ostrove's guidance and support and at all relevant times placed trust and confidence in Ostrove's judgment and advice.

5.03 In or around 2010, Ostrove began soliciting Plaintiff with an investment opportunity and represented that it was a safe, low risk investment which could lead to significant profits for Plaintiff.

5.04 Specifically, Defendant Ostrove recommended Plaintiff invest in the privately owned company, Palmaz Scientific Inc. ("PSI"), which is based in Dallas, Texas. PSI holds itself out as a company that develops and manufactures biotechnology whose business is related to the development and manufacturing of medical equipment, including medical stents.

5.05 Ostrove represented to Plaintiff that he had done his due diligence in PSI and that, based on his findings, Plaintiff should invest in PSI based on his research.

5.06 Ostrove further represented to Plaintiff that PSI were unrivaled experts in creating and selling state-of-the-art technology and passed along to Plaintiff PPMs along with private offerings from PSI supporting these representations. As an example, Ostrove represented to Plaintiff that PSI owned over a hundred patents regarding top of the line medical stents that PSI had commercialized and would further be commercializing with Plaintiff's contributions.

Ostrove also lead Plaintiff to believe that PSI was generating major cash flow and that it would materially sustain its operation. Ostrove also lead Plaintiff to believe that PSI would likely merge with a major and successful pharmaceutical company. Ostrove claimed that PSI was conducting clinical trials in South America which would significantly boost the value of the company.

5.07 Another key selling point to induce Plaintiff's investment was the pitch regarding PSI's management team and Board members, including non-party Steven Solomon – the then CEO of PSI. Ostrove represented that he was personally acquainted with Solomon and that Solomon was a person of the highest integrity, was highly skilled, and had been a top executive who achieved unfettered success for several public and private companies for more than twenty (20) years.

5.08 In 2010, at the direction of Defendants and in reliance on the representations made by Defendants, Plaintiff Kelly purchased $200,000 worth of preferred stock in PSI. Unfortunately for Plaintiff, the representations made by Defendants regarding the investment in PSI were utterly and completely false.

5.09 In reality, Defendants made numerous misrepresentations and/or failed to disclose material facts related to PSI, its background, its officers and overall financial condition. Defendants failed to disclose to Plaintiff that PSI's financial condition was and had been in complete shambles. For the several years, both prior to 2010 and after 2010, PSI had realized significant financial losses and had failed to even commercialize many of the products it purported to be selling. Defendants failed to properly disclose and/or concealed these facts to Plaintiff.

5.10 Moreover, Defendants both affirmatively misrepresented and/or failed to disclose facts pertaining to PSI's purported intellectual property portfolio and ownership as well as its existing obligations under contracts with third parties. For example, several trademarks concerning the "state-of-the-art" technology PSI was purportedly commercializing had actually been abandoned. Also, Defendants failed to disclose to Plaintiff that PSI owed significant contractual obligations to compensate third-parties. For example, unbeknownst to Plaintiff, non-party Chris Boyles had a significant interest in certain assets of PSI. In fact, PSI undertook a $3,700,000 obligation in 2014 as the result of a lawsuit brought by Boyles for violating his contractual rights. Defendants failed to properly disclose these facts to Plaintiff.

5.11 Defendants also failed to disclose to Plaintiff that PSI was paying its officers grossly inflated salaries from Plaintiff's contributions. This is even more egregious considering that the financial condition of PSI continued to deteriorate due to a lack of revenue caused, in part, by PSI's failure to manufacture or commercialize any medical equipment.

5.12 Defendants' representations regarding the background and qualifications of Solomon were also not true. Defendants failed to disclose material facts pertaining to Solomon's history, including the fact that Solomon: 1) had been sued on multiple occasions, including in a putative shareholder class action for securities fraud as an officer of Citadel Security Software Inc.; 2) had previously filed bankruptcy; 3) had his FINRA broker registration terminated; and 4) was fined by FINRA in response to allegations he wrongfully authorized the transfer of funds from an account of a public customer to his own account.

5.13 In August of 2015, for the first time since Defendants induced Plaintiff's investment in PSI, Plaintiff was notified by PSI that its financial condition was in dire straits. Specifically, PSI notified Plaintiff that the company had minimal cash, no revenue and mounting debts. To make matters worse, Solomon was also suspiciously resigning from PSI to “pursue other opportunities.”

5.14 In March of 2016, PSI filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy. On information and belief, both PSI and Solomon are now under investigation by the SEC.

5.15 In reality, Plaintiff has never known the true value, status or the true history of his investment. To date, Plaintiff has not been provided adequate financial statements, performance records, closing statements, and/or anything of the like in regards to his investment in PSI. Moreover, after inducing Plaintiff to invest in PSI, Defendants never disclosed these and other material adverse facts to Plaintiff and continued to manage his investment while failing to reflect the true facts in the PPMs and other company disclosures under the securities laws.

5.15 Additionally, Plaintiff’s preferred stock investment was summarily converted to common stock and thereby materially impacting Plaintiff’s standing in any bankruptcy proceeding. Defendants never advised Plaintiff that this was possible under the terms of the offering. Indeed, Defendant Ostrove appeared ignorant of this possibility.

5.16 By placing his trust, confidence and money into the hands of Defendants, Plaintiff has endured staggering losses. In fact, Plaintiff’s entire investment in PSI has been lost, resulting in losses to Plaintiff exceeding $200,000.

VI.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF - VIOLATION OF THE TEXAS SECURITIES ACT

6.01 Plaintiff incorporates by reference Sections I through V, as though fully set forth herein.

6.02 Defendants violated Section 33 of the Texas Securities Act.

6.03 Defendants sold and offered to sell securities by means of untrue statements of material fact and by omissions to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

6.04 Plaintiff did not know of the untruths or omissions and even in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission.

6.05 Defendants are, therefore, liable to Plaintiff for rescission for the securities still owned by Plaintiff and for damages for the securities no longer owned by Plaintiff. Plaintiff is also entitled to costs of court and reasonable attorney's fees.

VII.
SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF - STATUTORY FRAUD

7.01 Plaintiff incorporates by reference Sections I through VI, as though fully set forth herein.

7.02 Additionally, and/or in the alternative, Defendants violated Chapter 27 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

7.03 On information and belief, Defendants made several false representations of a past or existing material fact to induce Plaintiff into entering into the Subscription Agreements, and Plaintiff relied on Defendants when entering into the Subscription Agreements.

7.04 As a result of Defendants' violation of Chapter 27.01 of the Business and Commerce Code, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages.

7.05 Plaintiff is also entitled to reasonable and necessary attorney's fees, expert witness fees, costs for copies of depositions, and costs of court.

VIII.
THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF - BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

8.01 Plaintiff incorporates by reference Section I through VII, as though fully set forth herein.

8.02 Additionally, and/or in the alternative, at all times, Defendants were agents, advisors and fiduciaries of Plaintiff with respect to the purchase, management, and disbursement of funds relating to Plaintiff's investment in PSI. Moreover, a history and a relationship of trust and confidence existed between the Plaintiff and Defendants.

8.03 Defendants owed fiduciary duties to Plaintiff, including the following: (a) a duty of good faith and loyalty; (b) a duty to act with reasonable diligence in fulfilling the terms of their agency; (c) a duty to exercise such skill as is ordinarily possessed by persons in Defendants' business; (d) a duty of full disclosure; (e) a duty to use care with respect to Plaintiff's investment; (e) to act impartially and to not usurp their own welfare for that of Plaintiff; (f) a duty of candor; and (g) a duty to act with integrity of the strictest kind.

8.03 Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to Plaintiff through several acts, including but not limited to, the following:

- a.) Failing to disclose material facts related to PSI's medical devices, its officer backgrounds, financial dealings, financial condition, securities history, prior litigation history, and other material facts related to PSI;
- b.) Failing to disclose the full extent of fees, commissions and profits being realized by PSI in the sale of the stock and in the sale of the stock sold to the Plaintiff;
- c.) Presenting Plaintiff with Private Placement Memoranda that contained numerous misleading and false statements concerning PSI;
- d.) Failing to reveal the lack of management oversight over the officers and agents of PSI;
- e.) Failing to disclose PSI's intended use of the funds obtained from Plaintiff;
- f.) Failing to disclose PSI's contractual obligations;

- g.) Failing to disclose PSI's debts;
- h.) Failing to disclose litigation in which PSI was involved;
- i.) Failing to disclose PSI's trademark abandonments;
- j.) Failing to disclose the intended and actual repurchase of shareholder shares;
- k.) Inducing Plaintiff's investment into PSI in order to receive substantial commissions without regard to the above acts;
- l.) Failing to disclose that PSI was paying its officers grossly inflated salaries.
- m.) Failing to exercise initial, and ongoing, due diligence with respect to the financial management of Plaintiff's investment.

8.04 Additionally, Defendant Jefferies further breached its duties to Plaintiff in the following ways:

- a.) In that any of the above breaches of fiduciary duties committed by Ostrove were committed while he was acting as an agent and employee of Jefferies and while he was acting within the scope of said employment;
- b.) Jefferies failed to supervise the conduct of Ostrove in connection with his advice and management of Plaintiff's funds;
- c.) Jefferies failed to have proper protocols and rules in place regarding the giving of advice and services to Plaintiff regarding his investment.

8.05 As a result of Defendants' breaches of fiduciary duties, Plaintiff has collectively suffered severe monetary harm exceeding $200,000 plus costs and interests. Plaintiff is also entitled to exemplary or punitive damages, disgorgement of Defendants' profits, benefit of the bargain damages and constructive trust.

IX.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF - NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

9.01 Plaintiff incorporates by reference Sections I through VIII, as though fully set forth herein.

9.02 Additionally, and/or in the alternative, Defendants supplied Plaintiff with false information and/or negligently failed to fully and adequately inform Plaintiff of material facts when they were duty-bound to do so. Defendants also failed to use reasonable care in obtaining and/or communicating this information. These misrepresentations, both affirmative and by omission, were made in the course of Defendants' business and/or in transactions in which Defendants had a financial interest. The misrepresentations regarded the structure, legitimacy, viability and assurance of success regarding Plaintiff's investment in PSI, as well as Defendants' role in the safekeeping, managing, monitoring and carrying out the disposition of said investment. These misrepresentations included, but were not limited to:

- a.) Failing to disclose material facts related to PSI's medical devices, its officer backgrounds, financial dealings, financial condition, securities history, prior litigation history, and other material facts related to PSI;
- b.) Failing to properly disclose the full extent of fees, commissions and profits being realized by PSI in the sale of the stock and in the sale of the stock sold to the Plaintiff;
- c.) Presenting Plaintiff with Private Placement Memoranda that contained numerous misleading and false statements concerning PSI;
- d.) Failing to reveal the lack of management oversight over the officers and agents of PSI;
- e.) Failing to disclose the company's intended use of the funds obtained from Plaintiff;
- f.) Failing to disclose the company's contractual obligations;
- g.) Failing to disclose the company's debts;
- h.) Failing to disclose litigation in which the company was involved;
- i.) Failing to disclose PSI's trademark abandonments;
- j.) Failing to disclose the intended and actual repurchase of shareholder shares;
- k.) Failing to disclose that PSI was paying its officers grossly inflated salaries.

- 1.) Failing to exercise initial, and ongoing, due diligence with respect to the financial management of Plaintiff's investment.

9.03 The misrepresentations were material in that Plaintiff's decision to participate in these investments would not have been made in the absence of the misrepresentations.

9.04 Due to Defendants' credibility, experience, and stature in the industry, as well as Plaintiff's confidential relationship with Defendants, Plaintiff actually and justifiably relied on the misrepresentations by contracting with the Defendants for their services, by entering into the investment, and by contributing substantial amounts of monies to these investments.

9.05 As a result of Defendants' negligent misrepresentations, Plaintiff has suffered severe monetary harm exceeding $200,000 plus costs and interest. Plaintiff is also entitled to exemplary or punitive damages.

X.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE

10.01 Plaintiff incorporates by reference Sections I through IX, as though fully set forth herein.

10.02 In the course of their employment and business with Plaintiff in which they had a pecuniary interest, Defendants issued false information for the guidance of Plaintiff and failed to exercise reasonable care or competence in obtaining this information when they were duty bound to do so. Furthermore, to the extent Defendants discovered they had provided false information for the guidance of Plaintiff, they failed to communicate this material information to Plaintiff when they were duty bound to do so. Plaintiff justifiably relied on Defendants' false information to his detriment.

10.03 Plaintiff is among the limited group of individuals intended to be supplied the benefit and guidance of Defendants' information. Furthermore, Defendants intended and/or knew or should have known that Plaintiff would rely on this false information.

10.04 Based on Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff has suffered severe monetary harm of exceeding $200,000 plus costs and interest.

XI.
JURY DEMAND

11.01 In accordance with Rule 216 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff demands a trial by jury. Simultaneously with the filing of this demand, a jury fee is being paid on behalf of Plaintiff.

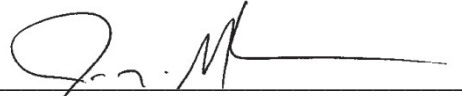

XII.
PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff prays that upon final notice and hearing as required by law, Plaintiff recovers against Defendants, jointly and severally, judgment as follows:

- a. An accounting of Plaintiff's cash accounts held by Defendants;
- b. Actual damages;
- c. Punitive or exemplary damages;
- d. Constructive trust;
- e. Disgorgement of profits;
- f. Benefit of the bargain damages;
- g. Pre-judgment interest as allowed by law;
- h. Post-judgment interest as allowed by law;
- i. Expert witness fees;

- j. Costs for copies of depositions;
- k. Costs of court; and
- j. Such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.
